

December, Saugatuck River - poem by P. Fenwick music by Winifred Keane flute

NARRATOR

These swans duck behind the islands leaves swans, geese, & reeds. Red cobalt sky turns river black. Only cracking ice shadows the tide.

piano

Cold silence darts branch to branch. Vines, mocking bird, kingfisher rattles, swamp maple top, pond rotates.

Mallards sass, silence. Across the open field, brick red, naked, branches & trucks bigeyed vireo, white patched mocking bird, cold gae

Overhead, Careless jay & whistles
